C.H. Spurgeon

“Is it not a wonderful thing that he made purification for our sins even before we had committed them? There they stood before the sight of God, as already existent in all their hideousness. The sweepers of the streets, the dishwashers of the kitchen, the cleansers of the sewers have honorable work compared to this. Yet, the holy Christ, incapable of sin, stooped to make purification for our sins.”
