FRIENDS OF THE WEEK

Barbara Andrews works in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, with Christ For Me where she is involved in illustrating and grading correspondence Bible lessons and answering letters, among other tasks. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Take some time in the next week to reflect on the death of Jesus Christ and its meaning in preparation for Communion next Sunday.

College & Career Class: 1st Sunday lunch starts up again next week. Bring a friend and join us at the Arnolds'.

The Men's Breakfast will be this Saturday morning, September 3 at 8:00 AM; all men are invited. There will be a brief time of doing some needed work around the building after the meal.

The Adult Choir will begin practices again on Wednesday, September 7 at 8:00 PM.

AWANA will start up again on Sunday, September 25. It is time to begin thinking about your involvement in this important ministry. If you would like to know more, contact Ron Fuhrman or David Herring for information. There will be an AWANA Dinner for the staff on Friday evening, September 23.

Book Club: For September we're all reading Pilgrim's Progress by John Bunyan. This would be a good one to get your kids hooked on, too (there are some really good children's versions with lots of vivid pictures). (Several have asked about the edition mentioned last Sunday. The ISBN is 978-1433506994 and can be purchased on Amazon for $16.24.) Read it and plan to join us for the discussion on Friday, September 30, 7:00 PM at the Arnolds'.

Adult Education: There will be an Old Testament Survey Class taught by John Glasser on Thursdays beginning in September. If you are interested contact John to find out about this opportunity.

The Women of the Cross Bible Study will be studying The Difference Christ Makes in Your Life: a very personal study by Gloria Perkins. It will begin Tuesday, September 6 from 10 - 12. Childcare provided.
